LAW

INCORPORATING THE

Borough of Harrisburg.

AN ACT

To alter an act entitled "An act to erect the town of Harrisburg, in the county of Dauphin into a borough."

WHEREAS, by the sixth section of an act of the general assembly of this commonwealth, passed on the thirteenth day of April, Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and ninety-one, entitled "An act to erect the town of Harrisburg, in the county of Dauphin, into a borough," it is enacted, "That the burgesses and freeholders, inhabitants of Harrisburg, respectively, forever shall enjoy all the powers, jurisdictions, exclusions, authorities and privileges, and be subject to the same qualifications, restrictions, penalties, fines and forfeitures, within the said borough, as are enjoyed by, and limited to the burgesses and inhabitants of the borough of Reading, in the county of Berks." And whereas, it appears by petition of the inhabitants of the said borough of Harrisburg, that experience has fully proven, that owing to a difference in the local situation of the two places, and various other causes, the act of assembly for erecting the town of Reading into a borough, however applicable to the purpose for which it was originally intended by the legislature, is not well calculated for the good government of the borough of Harrisburg: Therefore,

Sect. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in general assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the said town of Harrisburg shall still continue and forever remain a borough, under the name and title of "The borough of Harrisburg," its. Perpetuated according to former lim-
